

I am writing in opposition to imposing any additional fees or taxes on prepaid calling cards. These cards are mostly used by poor people. Our citizens should not be faced with increased taxes when the economy is struggling.